In the Town of Vulcan LUB, please replace A1 with the language below and remove pages 2 and 3 of Appendix A. As Appendix A does not form part of the bylaw, this change is being done without an amending bylaw.

When complete update as normal but send a pdf to Nancy directly ASAP.

Thanks

Schedule 'A'

Bylaw No. 1496-21

Amendments to Land Use Bylaw No. 1437-15

The described amendments are to bring the municipal Land Use Bylaw No. 1437-15 into compliance with the modernized Municipal Government Act and amended Subdivision and Development Regulations.

1. That Administration, Section 13, Development Officer – Power and Duties, subsection (13.2) is amended by adding the following underlined text:

13.2 The Development Officer:
(a) shall receive and process all applications for development permits and determine whether a development permit application is complete in accordance with section 27;

2. Administration, Section 27, Incomplete Applications, is amended by adding the or rewording the following underlined text:

27 DETERMINATION OF A COMPLETE DEVELOPMENT PERMIT APPLICATION

27.1 The Development Authority shall, within 20 days after the receipt of a development permit application in accordance with Section 26, determine whether the application is complete.

27.2 The Development Authority may refuse to accept a development permit application where the information required by Section 26 (Development Permit Application) is incomplete or where, in their opinion, the quality of the material supplied is inadequate to properly evaluate the application.

27.3 An application is complete if, in the opinion of the Development Authority, the application contains the documents and other information necessary to review the application.

27.4 The time period referred to in subsection 27.1 may be extended by an agreement in writing between the applicant and the Development Authority.

27.5 If the Development Authority does not make a determination referred to in subsection 27.1 within the time required under subsection 27.1 or 27.4, the application is deemed to be complete.

27.6 If a Development Authority determines that the application is complete, the Development Authority shall issue to the applicant a written Notice of Completeness acknowledging that the application is complete, delivered by hand, mail, or electronic means.

27.7 If the Development Authority determines that the application is incomplete, the Development Officer shall issue to the applicant a written notice indicating that the application is incomplete, which specifies:

(a) the outstanding documents and information to be provided, including but not limited to those required by Section 26, and

(b) a submission deadline.

A later submission date may be agreed on by the applicant and the Development Authority in order for the application to be considered complete.

27.8 If the Development Authority determines that the information and documents submitted under subsection 27.7 are complete, the Development Officer shall issue to the applicant a written Notice of Completeness acknowledging that the application is complete, delivered by hand, mail or electronic means.

27.9 If the required documents and information under subsection 27.7 have not been submitted to the Development Authority within the timeframe prescribed in the notice issued under subsection 27.7, the Development Officer shall return the application to the applicant accompanied by a written Notice of Refusal stating the application is deemed refused and the reasons for refusal.

27.10 Despite issuance of a Notice of Completeness under subsection 27.6 or 27.8, the Development Authority in the course of reviewing the application may request additional information or documentation from the applicant that the Development Authority considers necessary to review the application.

3. Administration, Section 36, Commencement of Development, subsection 36.1 is amended by deleting and rewording the following underlined text:

36.1 Despite the issuance of a development permit, no development is authorized to commence until the appeal period has expired in compliance with the following:

(a) until at least 21 days after the date on which the decision is made and the notice of the issuance of the permit is posted, published in a newspaper or deemed received, in accordance with section 686(1) of the Municipal Government Act;

KATC

- 41.2 If an application was refused solely because it did not comply with the standards of this bylaw, or was refused as an incomplete application under section 27, the Development Officer may accept another application on the same parcel of land for the same or similar use before the time period referred to in subsection 41.1 has lapsed, provided the application has been modified to comply with this bylaw.
5. Administration, Section 42, Suspension or Cancellation of a Permit, Subsection 42.3, is amended by rewording the following underlined text:
- 42.3 A person whose development permit is suspended or cancelled under this section may appeal within 21 days of the date the notice of cancellation or suspension is received to the appropriate appeal board.
6. Administration, Section 43, Development Appeals, is amended by rewording and adding the following underlined text:

SECTION 43 DEVELOPMENT AND SUBDIVISION APPEALS

- 43.1 Any person applying for a development permit or any other person affected by an order, decision or development permit made or issued by the Development Authority, or any development application deemed refused in accordance with section 27, may appeal such an order or decision or deemed refusal to the Subdivision and Development Appeal Board in accordance with the procedures described in the MGA.
- 43.2 In accordance with the Municipal Government Act and the procedures outlined, any land owner who applied for subdivision and was refused an approval, or had conditions attached to the approval, or any subdivision application deemed refused in accordance with section 27, may appeal the decision to the Subdivision and Development Appeal Board, or Municipal Government Board if the circumstances require it. Adjacent or affected land owners have no right to appeal under the MGA.
- 43.2 An appeal to the Subdivision and Development Appeal Board shall be commenced by serving a written notice of the appeal with reasons to the Subdivision and Development Appeal Board and shall be accompanied by the applicable fees.
7. Administration, Subdivision, is amended by adding the following underlined sections and renumbering subsequent sections accordingly, as follows:

51. SUBDIVISION APPLICATIONS

- 51.1 An applicant applying for subdivision shall provide the required material and information as requested by the Subdivision Authority or its designate. A completed application shall consist of:

VATSC

- (a) An official application, in the manner and form prescribed, clearly and legibly filled out with all the required information and signatures provided as requested on the form;
- (b) The applicable fees paid;
- (c) An up-to-date and current copy of the Certificate of Title to the subject land;
- (d) A (clear and eligible) diagram, Surveyors sketch or tentative subdivision plan with dimensions and a north arrow, in the manner requested which may include the provision that it be professionally prepared as stipulated;
- (e) Provincial abandoned gas well information;
- (f) Any such other information as may be required at the discretion of the Subdivision Authority in order to accurately evaluate the application and determine compliance with the land use bylaw or other government regulations. This may include but is not limited to the provision of geotechnical information, soil analysis reports, water reports, soil or slope stability analysis, drainage information, contours and elevations of the land, engineering studies or reports, wetland reports, environmental impact assessments, utility and servicing information, and/or the preparation of a conceptual design scheme or an area structure plan may be required from the applicant prior to a decision being rendered on a subdivision application to determine the suitability of the land for the proposed use.
- (g) The consent to authorize the Subdivision Authority or its designate to carry out a site inspection on the subject land as authorized in accordance with the Municipal Government Act (MGA) must also be provided on the submitted application form unless determined not to be needed by the Subdivision Authority.

51.2 In accordance with the Municipal Government Act (MGA), the Subdivision Authority or those authorized to act on its behalf, shall provide notification to a subdivision applicant within the 20-day prescribed time period, on whether a submitted application is deemed complete, or if it is determined to be deficient, what information is required to be submitted by a specified time period, by sending notification in the following manner:

- (a) For an application deemed complete, the applicant shall be notified in writing as part of the formal subdivision application circulation referral letter.
- (b) For an application determined to be incomplete, written notification shall be given to the applicant which may be in the form of a letter sent by regular mail to the applicant, or sent by electronic means, or both, or by any other method as may be agreed to between the applicant and Subdivision Authority.

(c) In respect of subsection 51.2(b) for a subdivision application determined to be incomplete, the applicant will be advised in writing as part of the Notice of Incompleteness what the outstanding or required information items that must be submitted by the time specified in the notice.

51.3 Notwithstanding Section 51.2, the applicant and Subdivision Authority may agree and sign a time extension agreement in writing in accordance with section 653.1(3) of the MGA to extend the 20-day decision time period to determine whether the subdivision application and support information submitted is complete.

51.4 A determination made by the Subdivision Authority that an application is complete for processing does not preclude the ability for the Subdivision Authority to request other information or studies to be submitted by the applicant during the review and processing period, prior to a decision being rendered, or as condition of subdivision approval.

52. INCOMPLETE SUBDIVISION APPLICATIONS

52.1 The Subdivision Authority may refuse to accept and process a subdivision application where the information required under Section 56 and/or as described in a Notification of Incompleteness has not been submitted, is determined to be deficient, is still incomplete, or in the opinion of the Subdivision Authority the quality of the material supplied is inadequate to properly evaluate the application.

52.2 If the Subdivision Authority makes a determination that the application is refused due to incompleteness, the applicant shall be notified in writing with reasons in the manner as described in subsection 56(2).

52.3 The notification provided for in subsection (b) shall include for the applicant the required information on the filing of an appeal and to which appeal board body the appeal lies, either the local appeal board or provincial Municipal Government Board, in accordance with the parameters of the MGA.

Revised Bylaw No. 1500-21

OF THE TOWN OF VULCAN IN THE PROVINCE OF ALBERTA

A Bylaw of the Town of Vulcan, in the Province of Alberta, for the purpose of amending Bylaw No. 1500-21 to correct a technical error.

WHEREAS

Section 63(1) and 692(6) of the Municipal Government Act, Revised Statutes of Alberta 2000, Chapter M-26, as amended, provides that a Council may by bylaw authorize the revision of a bylaw to make changes without materially affecting the bylaw in principle or substance, to correct clerical, technical, grammatical, or typographical errors in the bylaw; and

WHEREAS

A technical error has been identified in Bylaw No. 1500-21 being that a portion of the legal description of the lands to be redesignated from “Residential – R-1” to “Multi-unit Residential – R-4” had been incorrectly written in the bylaw and correctly identified in Schedule A to Bylaw No. 1500-21;

AND WHEREAS

The Council of the Town of Vulcan deems it proper and expedient to correct the error and deems that the correction does not materially affect the bylaw in principle or substance;

THEREFORE under the authority and subject to the provisions of the Municipal Government Act, Revised Statutes of Alberta 2000, Chapter M-26, as amended, the Council of the Town of Vulcan duly assembled does hereby enact the following:

1. That the legal land description of Bylaw 1500-21 be replaced with the following:

Portion of Lot 4 & Portion of Lot 3, Block 21, Plan 9834GF

2. That the aforementioned amendment to Bylaw 1500-21, shall make use of formatting that maintains the consistency of the portions to the bylaw being amended.
4. That Bylaw No. 1500-21 is hereby amended.
5. This bylaw shall come into force and effect upon third and final passing thereof.

Schedule 'A'

Bylaw No. 1509-22 Amendments to Land Use Bylaw No. 1437-15

1. That Section 5 (Minimum Floor Area) of the R-1 District and the R-2 District in Schedule 1 is amended by lowering the minimum floor area requirement for Single unit dwellings from 92.9 m<sup>2</sup> (1000 sq ft) to 56.5 m<sup>2</sup> (500 sq ft).
2. That "Shipping Container, temporary" be added as a permitted use in all land use districts and removed from the discretionary use category in certain land use districts where it is listed now.
3. That the definition for "Carport" in Schedule 2 (Land Use Definitions) be amended as follows by deleting the strikethrough text and adding the text in red:

CARPORT means a partially enclosed accessory structure intended for the shelter of one or more motor vehicles with at least 40 percent (40%) of the total perimeter open and unobstructed

4. That Section 1.2(c) of Schedule 3 (Development Not Requiring A Permit), be amended as follows by deleting the strikethrough text:

the temporary placement or construction of works, plants or machinery ~~(not including shipping containers)~~ needed to construct a development for which a development permit has been issued for the period of those operations

5. That the following provision be added to Section 1.2 of Schedule 3 (Development Not Requiring A Permit):

In all districts, the temporary placement of one shipping container for a single period of use, which shall not exceed 14 days

6. That Section 14.4 (Shipping Containers) of Schedule 4 be amended as follows:

Existing Section

~~14.4 — A shipping container may be placed temporarily on a construction site for the period of construction, in any land use district where listed as a permitted or discretionary use with an approved development permit, subject to the following provisions:~~

- ~~(a) — temporary shipping containers are subject to the standards in subsection 14.2 above;~~
- ~~(b) — the shipping container is needed in connection with construction of a development for which a development permit has been issued;~~
- ~~(c) — the construction site is active (i.e., construction has commenced and is on-going or is about to commence within one week); placement of a shipping container on an inactive construction site is prohibited;~~
- ~~(d) — setbacks for a temporary shipping container shall be as required by the Development Authority;~~

- ~~(e) the Development Authority has the authority to determine the maximum amount of time a shipping container is permitted on a lot; and~~
- ~~(f) the shipping container shall be removed immediately upon completion of construction or sooner as may be required by the Development Authority.~~

Proposed New Section

- 14.4 As per Schedule 3: Development Not Requiring a Development Permit, the temporary use of a single shipping container is exempt from the development approval process provided that
- (a) the temporary shipping container does not exceed a single period of use, which shall be not more than 14 days;
  - (b) the temporary shipping container is situated entirely within the property that it serves;
  - (c) the applicant is responsible for ensuring the shipping container is removed from the parcel upon expiration of the temporary permit;
  - (d) Where more than one shipping container is desired, or where a shipping container is desired for longer than the prescribed exemption period, the Development Authority may authorize the temporary use of a shipping container(s) for a period up to 90 days, as a permitted use, by issuing a temporary development permit.
    - (i) Setbacks for a temporary shipping container(s) under this section shall be as required by the Development Authority and in no case less than 0.9 m (3 ft.) from a property line.
    - (ii) The posting of security may be required as a condition of development approval.
    - (iii) Applications requesting to exceed the prescribed 90 day period shall be treated as a variance request.
    - (iv) One time extension may be approved for a temporary shipping container and shall be dealt with by the original approving authority.
    - (v) The approval of a shipping container(s) under this section is not subject to the notification and referral requirements under Administrative Section 32 of this Bylaw unless a variance is request under subsection d(iii).
7. That Section 14.11 of Schedule 5 (Residential Standards of Development) be amended as follows by deleting the strikethrough text and adding the text in red:

7. That Schedule 2, Definitions be amended by adding the following definitions:

Dwelling Unit means a building or portion thereof designated or used exclusively as the living quarters for one or more persons and contains a kitchen and living, sleeping, and sanitary facilities.

Secondary Suite (Attached) means the development of an accessory dwelling unit located within or attached to a single-unit dwelling by a common roof. An attached secondary suite shall have an entrance separate from the entrance to the principal dwelling, either from a common indoor landing or directly from the side or rear of the structure. This use does not include a Boarding House, 2-unit, 3-unit, 4-unit, Row Dwelling, or Manufactured Home.

Secondary Suite (Detached) means the development of an accessory dwelling unit which is located in the rear yard of the same parcel upon which an existing principal dwelling unit is located. This use may be built in conjunction with a detached garage. This use may include a Prefabricated Dwelling but does not include a Boarding House, 2-unit, 3-unit, 4-unit, Row Dwelling, or Manufactured Home.

8. That Schedule 2, Definitions be amended by deleting the following definition:

Secondary Suite means a development containing cooking facilities, food preparation area, sleeping and sanitary facilities, which is physically separate from those of the principal dwelling within the structure. A secondary suite shall also have an entrance separate from the entrance to the principal dwelling, either from a common indoor landing or directly from the side or rear of the structure.

9. That Schedule 5, Section 16 Secondary Suite Standards be amended by deleting the section and replacing it with the following:

Section 16 SECONDARY SUITE STANDARDS

Secondary Suite (Attached) means the development of an accessory dwelling unit located within or attached to a single-unit dwelling by a common roof. An attached secondary suite shall have an entrance separate from the entrance to the principal dwelling, either from a common indoor landing or directly from the side or rear of the structure. This use does not include a Boarding House, 2-unit, 3-unit, 4-unit, Row Dwelling, or Manufactured Home.

Secondary Suite (Detached) means the development of an accessory dwelling unit which is located in the rear yard of the same parcel upon which an existing principal dwelling unit is located. This use may be built in conjunction with a detached garage. This use may include a Prefabricated Dwelling but does not include a Boarding House, 2-unit, 3-unit, 4-unit, Row Dwelling, or Manufactured Home.

- 16.1 A secondary suite shall have cooking facilities, food preparation area, sleeping and sanitary facilities, which are physically separate from those of the principal dwelling.
- 16.2 This use does not include a Boarding House, 2-unit, 3-unit, 4-unit, Row Dwelling, or Manufactured Home.
- 16.3 The minimum lot size for a parcel containing a secondary suite is 529.5 m<sup>2</sup> (5700 sq ft).
- 16.4 The minimum floor area for a secondary suite shall be not less than 30.2 m<sup>2</sup> (323 sq ft).

- 16.5 Only one secondary suite, attached or detached, may be developed in conjunction with a principal dwelling.
- 16.6 A secondary suite shall not be developed within the same principal dwelling containing a Home Occupation 2, unless it is proven to the satisfaction of the Development Authority that the amount of traffic generated is limited and adequate parking is available without adversely affecting the neighbourhood.
- 16.7 The secondary suite shall not be subject to separation from the principal dwelling through a condominium conversion or subdivision.
- 16.8 Variances or waivers of setbacks shall not be granted to develop a secondary suite.
- 16.9 The secondary suite shall have full utility services through service connections from the principal dwelling unit.
- 16.10 The following standards shall apply to Secondary Suite (Attached):
- (a) the setbacks for the secondary suite shall comply with the minimum setbacks for the principal dwelling;
  - (b) the secondary suite shall be developed in such a manner that the exterior of the principal dwelling containing the secondary suite shall appear as a single dwelling;
  - (c) the entrance to the secondary suite shall be separate from the entrance to the principal dwelling, either from a common indoor landing or directly from the side or rear of the structure.
- 16.11 The following standards shall apply to Secondary Suite (Detached):
- (a) the maximum floor area is 79 m<sup>2</sup> (850 sq ft) (other than stairways or a common landing);
  - (b) the maximum building height is 7.5 m (25 ft) and in no case shall the secondary suite exceed the height of the principal dwelling;
  - (c) the minimum building setbacks are as stipulated in the applicable land use district. Where a secondary suite is built in conjunction with a garage, the setbacks for secondary suites shall apply and the setbacks for accessory buildings will not be utilized;
  - (d) the minimum separation from the principal dwelling shall be 3.0 m (9.84 ft);
  - (e) the maximum lot coverage of a secondary suite shall be limited to the area as stipulated for an accessory building in the applicable land use district;
  - (e) a secondary suite shall not be located on a parcel unless a single-unit dwelling is already erected on the site.

(f) a detached secondary suite shall remain subordinate to the single-unit dwelling;

(g) the exterior finish of the secondary suite, including but not limited to, materials, textures, and colours, shall match or compliment the exterior finish of the principal dwelling, to the satisfaction of the Development Authority;

(h) if the detached secondary suite is built in conjunction with a garage, the secondary suite shall have an entrance separate from the entrance to the garage, either from a common indoor landing or from the exterior of the structure;

(i) the secondary suite shall be constructed on a permanent foundation.

16.12 Development of a secondary suite shall adhere to the Alberta Safety Codes as a condition of approval.

16.13 Minimum Parking requirements for all secondary suites are:

(a) Suite 70 m<sup>2</sup> (750 sq ft) or less: 1 parking stall

(b) Suite over 70 m<sup>2</sup> (750 sq ft): 2 parking stalls

10. That Schedule 2, Definitions be amended the existing definition for “Prefabricated Dwelling” by deleting the strikethrough text and adding the underlined text as follows:

Prefabricated Dwelling means a development where a dwelling unit or portions of a dwelling unit that is built in a factory ~~or portions of dwelling units that are built in a factory~~ or location other than on the lot intended for year-round occupancy and includes modular, ready-to-move and panelized dwellings. The dwelling is a factory built structure that is ~~manufactured in accordance with CSA and the Alberta Building Code,~~ is transportable in one or more sections, and is used as a place for human habitation; but which is not constructed with a permanent hitch, chassis or other device allowing transport of the unit other than for the purpose of delivery to a permanent site. This definition does not include manufactured homes, park model recreational units, park model trailers or travel trailers.

11. That Schedule 5, Section 12 Prefabricated Dwelling Standards be amended by deleting the strikethrough text and replacing it with the underlined text as follows:

Section 12      PREFABRICATED DWELLINGS

12.1 A prefabricated dwelling is required to meet the following criteria:

(a) factory-built unit that meets CSA standards ~~and Building Code, (CSA A-277)~~ or has been certified by a Professional Engineer to comply with National Building Code, Alberta Edition;

(b) dwelling is securely fastened and placed on a basement, concrete slab, concrete strip footing, or pile or pier footing;

- (c) minimum floor area shall ~~not be less than 92.9 m<sup>2</sup> (1000 sq ft)~~ be the minimum floor area defined in the applicable land use district;
- (d) minimum width of dwelling – 10.9 m (36 ft);
- (e) maximum length of dwelling – 20.1 m (66 ft);
- (f) maximum height of exposed foundation above finished grade – 0.6 m (2 ft);
- (g) Where a prefabricated dwelling is to be used as a Secondary Suite (Detached), the minimum floor area of the dwelling unit shall meet the minimum requirements for Secondary Suites defined in Section 16 and the minimum width of the dwelling shall be as determined by the Development Authority.

- 12.2 A development permit for a prefabricated dwelling may be issued by the Development Authority provided that:
- (a) the design, character, and appearance (including roof lines/material and exterior finish) of prefabricated homes shall be consistent with the purpose of the district in which the building is located and shall take into account any other buildings existing in the vicinity;
  - (b) to ensure compatibility of housing types, the variation of roof lines between prefabricated dwellings and conventional homes may be limited;
  - (c) at the discretion of the Development Authority, the exterior finish, colour and roofing material may be stipulated as a condition of approval;
  - (d) the basement access is housed within an approved enclosure;
  - (e) the dwelling shall conform to any architectural controls that may apply.
- 12.3 As a condition of approval the Development Authority, at their discretion, may place other conditions on a development permit including the requirement that the developer provide landscaping, fencing, address drainage issues, or other such matters it considers necessary if, in his or its opinion, they would serve to improve the quality or compatibility of any proposed development.
- 12.4 The building and the land upon which it is to be located shall be subject to all conditions and regulations specified for the particular land use district set out in the Land Use Bylaw.
- 12.5 The applicant/developer must submit professional building plans illustrating in colour the exterior design, floor plan, elevations and setbacks.
- 12.6 The quality of the completed building shall be at least equal to the quality of the other buildings in the area.
- 12.7 If there is any doubt as to the required standards being met, the Development Officer may refer the application to the Municipal Planning Commission for a decision.
- 12.8 The Development Authority may require a security deposit to ensure the conditions of the development permit for a principal building are met.
